IN MEMORIAM. Mrs. Mary Pearl.

Mrs. Mary Pearl.

There was buried from Sacred Heart church, with solemn high mass of requiem, Saturday, June 10, Mrs. Mary Pearl, who was held in great esteem by many of all denominations, especially the old-timers. They had a high appreciation of her many virtues, her steriling honesty, her strong Irish faith, her spirit of simplicity and her charity to all in need. Long and painful was her illness, but happy, peculiarly happy and blessed, was her death. But we naturally expect that a good life shall be crowned by a happy death.

Jesus 150m pathetic, impressive and hope-imparing are the prayers the priest of God recites, while the dying Christian is struggling in the last combat with the rowers of darkness. "Remember not, oh Lord! the sins and ignorances of her youth; for though she has simed, she has still retained a true faith in thee. Father, Son and Holy Ghost. She has had a zeal for thy glory and has faithfully served thee, the Creater and Lord of all things. Depart, Christian soul, in the name of God, who created thes."

As these words were uttered, a gentle breath, and with a smile of peace and contentment, the soul left the body. May she rest in peace!

The closing exercises of he Mount Carmel school, in charge of the Mistionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, will be held at the Broadway theatre Sunday, June 25, at 2,30 p. m., and will be of an interesting character. The sisters have secured a magnificent site on Boulevard F. Rocky Mountain take, for their Industrial school and Orphanage, and hope their friends will help them in the'r great undertaking. The public in general, regardless of reed, smould rally to the assistance of these noble women, who have sacrificed everything near and dear to the human heart for God's homeless and suffering orphans.

Forty Hours' Devotion.

On Sunday evening last Sister Mary Carlos, for the past four years superioress of Immusculate Conception school, left for Mount Clemens, Mich., where she will remain until she has fully recovered her lost health. For months Sister Mary Carlos has been suffering from a nervous affection, and a lower allitude was advised by her physicalar. It is hardly likely that she will ever return to her duties here, the physical collapse very nearly resulting fatally.
